Los Angeles, California 90012

At its meeting held January 29, 2008, the Board took the following action:

7

Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“On November 8, 2006, the Board of Supervisors approved a reward offer of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the murder of Janet Altamirano and wounding of Nadina Mercado. The reward offer for this heinous crime was last extended on July 31, 2007, but will expire on February 1, 2008.

“On Saturday, November 4, 2006, in the 2100 block of East 117th Street in the Willowbrook area of Los Angeles Janet Altamirano, age 12, was shot and later died at St. Francis hospital. Nadina Mercado, age 15, was also shot and suffered minor wounds.

“The shooting started when detectives from the Sheriff’s Homicide Bureau and Compton task force served a search warrant at a residence in the area. Deputies came under gunfire from one or more suspects, who fired an unknown-type assault rifle from across the street.

“Janet Altamirano leaves behind her mother and grandparents.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, unanimously carried (Supervisor Molina being absent), the Board extended the $10,000 reward offered for any information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of the person or persons responsible for the fatal shooting of Janet Altamirano and the wounding of Nadina Mercado, in the 2100 block of East 117th Street, in the Willowbrook area, on Saturday, November 4, 2006.
